House of Morandé 2005 Red Blend - 92 points

The purple-colored 2005 House of Morandé Red Blend is made up of 91% Cabernet Sauvignon with the balance Cabernet Franc and Merlot. It offers up a pleasing perfume of spice box, incense, a hint of balsamic, blackcurrant, and blackberry. Smooth-textured, ripe, and savory on the palate, the wine reveals excellent volume, intense flavors, and enough structure to evolve for 2-3 years. It will be in peak form from 2012 to 2020.

Edición Limitada Carmenère 2007 - 91 points

The 2007 Carmenere Edición Limitada is purple in color with a classy bouquet of balsam wood, smoke, violets, blueberry, and black cherry. This leads to a medium- to full-bodied, savory, dense offering with loads of fruit and the structure to match. Give it 3-4 years to fill out and drink it through 2022.

Edición Limitada Sauvignon Blanc 2008 - 90 points

Morandé's 2008 Sauvignon Blanc Edición Limitada is medium straw-colored with a nicely developed nose of wood smoke, floral notes, citrus, and fresh herbs. Smooth-textured on the palate, with good depth and plenty of savory fruit, this lengthy Sauvignon will provide pleasure over the next 1-2 years.

Edición Limitada Carignan 2007 - 89+ points

The 2007 Carignan Edición Limitada is purple-colored with a nose of violets, pepper, and blackberry compote. This leads to a medium- to full-bodied, slightly rustic, savory wine with plenty of layered fruit, good balance, and a medium-long finish. Give it 2-3 years to fill out and drink it from 2012 to 2019.

Reserva Sauvignon Blanc 2009 - 91 points

Aromas of herbs, grapefruit, and lemon-lime; medium-bodied, crisp, with excellent balance.
