“This has character, with a sappy, kirsch- and blackberry-filled core wrapped with mouthwatering pepper, licorice and tobacco notes. Racy minerality weaves in on the finish. There’s weight, but this comes off as stylish in the end. Drink now through 2011”.

“Made from dry-farmed, old vine Carignan, this develops exquisite complexity as it takes on air. After several hours in a decanter, it sheds its initial oak tones to reveal ripe cherry and violet notes, along with scents of leather and sweet spice. It’s a sturdy Carignan, a firm wine that demands powerful food to rival it in volume”.
